An amendment that includes tar sands as a possible source from which to produce synthetic fuel or chemical feedstocks;

An amendment that includes tar sands and heavy oils within the definitions of "synthetic fuels" and "synthetic chemical feedstocks";

An amendment that sought to strike language authorizing the President to organize corporations to produce synthetic fuels and chemical feedstocks;

An amendment that sought to prohibit purchase contracts to be awarded to the top eight major oil companies (rejected by a recorded vote of 127 ayes to 263 noes with 1 voting "present", Roll No. 283). A point of order against this amendment was overruled;

An amendment that sought to give the President the right to requisition property or use thereof for the defense of the United States upon payment of just compensation; and

A motion that the Committee of the Whole rise and report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken.

Rejected a motion to recommit the bill to the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce with instructions to report it back forthwith containing an amendment that would have required the health systems plan of a health systems agency to include a statement of the effect that achievement of the goals of the plan would have on the requirements placed on the practice of medicine by the Oath of Hippocrates (rejected by a yea-and-nay vote of 55 yeas to 364 nays, Roll No. 361). Earlier, this amendment was rejected in the Committee of the Whole by a division vote of 20 ayes to 22 noes.

Agreed To:

The committee amendments. Two committee amendments were withdrawn that would have amended language relating to the exclusion of certain major medical equipment not owned or located in a health facility from certificate of need coverage;

An amendment that defines the term "healthful environment", as used in the review of health systems plans, as the environment "primarily with regard to health care equipment and to health services provided by health care institutions, health care facilities, and other providers of health care and other health resources";

Two technical amendments;

An amendment that stipulates that the issuance of a certificate of need may not be made subject to any requirement not directly related to a determination of the need for the service, equipment, or expenditure for which the certificate is to be issued. Rejected an amendment to this amendment that sought to provide that a certificate of need may not be made subject to any condition that does not directly relate to review criteria developed and published by the State Agency after reasonable opportunity for a hearing and debate (rejected by a recorded vote of 203 ayes to 211 noes, Roll No. 359);

An amendment that permits those units of local government already handling their services through a public agency to continue their supervision;

An amendment that permits minimally funded State Agencies to receive Federal matching dollars up to the limit of $200,000 or 25 cents per capita; and

An amendment that prohibits health systems agencies from using Federal funds to hire individuals to lobby on pending legislation at the local, State, and Federal levels.

Rejected:

An amendment that sought to provide that all health systems agencies be public agencies; to require that 25 percent of the members of the governing bodies of the health systems agencies be appointed by the Governor of the State and 30 percent by the chief governing authority within the service area; and to provide that the governing bodies be composed of at least 10 but not more than 30 members (rejected by a recorded vote of 135 ayes to 274 noes, Roll No. 360, after having been previously agreed to by a division vote of 16 ayes to 10 noes); and

An amendment that sought to waive Davis-Bacon wage requirements in relation to construction of medical facilities under the provisions of the bill (rejected by a division vote of 12 ayes to 26 noes).

Subsequently, this passage was vacated and S. 544, a similar Senate-passed bill, was passed in lieu after being amended to contain the language of the House bill as passed. Agreed to amend the title of the Senate bill.

Agreed to the committee amendment in the nature of a substitute.

Agreed To:

An amendment that provides that persons who are living within their native countries and are being persecuted shall be included within the definition of "refugee" in such special circumstances as the President specifies after appropriate consultation with the Judiciary Committees;

An amendment that terminates authority to admit up to 50,000 refugees after three years, returning the normal flow to 17,400;

An amendment that provides for a hearing by the appropriate congressional committees after the President initiates consultation prior to making a determination that refugee admissions should exceed 50,000;

An amendment that provides for congressional veto of a determination by the President to admit more than 50,000 refugees, except for emergency situations;

An amendment that waives through fiscal year 1981, rather than 1980, the four-year limitation on Federal reimbursements to States for cash, medical, and child welfare assistance programs (agreed to by a division vote of 9 ayes to 3 noes);

An amendment that strikes certain conditions required of States in their resettlement plan and report; and requires the Secretary of Labor and the Secretary of Education to provide each member of the Judiciary Committees and the Director with annual reports describing the efforts of their respective departments to increase refugee access to programs within their jurisdiction;

An amendment that delays the transfer of State Department involvement in domestic refugee resettlement programs to the new Office of Refugee Assistance from fiscal year 1981 to 1982;

An amendment that increases the funding ceiling of the Emergency Migration and Refugee Fund from $25 million to $50 million;

A technical amendment;

An amendment that applies the provisions of the bill to aliens who have requested asylum in the United States prior to November 1, 1979; and

An amendment that establishes an Office of Refugee Policy in the Executive Office of the President.

Rejected:

An amendment that sought to require approval by the Judiciary Committees of the House and Senate before the President can exceed the 50,000 level for refugees established by the bill;

An amendment that sought to reduce the total number of immigrants allowed entry each year by one for every two refugees admitted annually over the 50,000 per year limit (rejected by a division vote of 7 ayes to 26 noes); and

An amendment, as amended, that sought to strike language (title III) relating to refugee assistance and establishment of the Office of Refugee Resettlement, and retain present refugee assistance programs instead of consolidating them into a single program.
